

United States of America (USA) – Quick Facts

- Capital: Washington, D.C.
- Largest City: New York City
- Currency: United States Dollar (USD)
- Number of States: 50
- Population: Approximately 340 million
- Official Federal Language: None (English is the most widely spoken language)
- Government Type: Federal Constitutional Republic
- Head of State and Government: President of the United States
- Independence Day: July 4, 1776
- National Anthem: "The Star-Spangled Banner"
- National Motto: "In God We Trust"
- National Bird: Bald Eagle
- National Colors: Red, White, and Blue
- Largest State by Area: Alaska
- Most Populous State: California
- Time Zones: Eastern, Central, Mountain, Pacific, Alaska, and Hawaii-Aleutian
- Constitution: The supreme law of the United States
- Major Branches of Government:
 - Executive Branch
 - Legislative Branch
 - Judicial Branch
- Major Landmarks:
 - Statue of Liberty
 - Grand Canyon
 - White House
 - Golden Gate Bridge
 - Mount Rushmore
- Major Oceans:
 - Atlantic Ocean
 - Pacific Ocean
 - Arctic Ocean (via Alaska)
- Longest River System: Mississippi–Missouri River System
- Highest Mountain: Denali (Alaska)
- National Animal: American Bison
- Country Code: +1
- Internet Domain: .us
- Flag: 13 stripes and 50 stars
- Continent: North America
- Largest Economy in the World (by nominal GDP)
- Known for: Innovation, higher education, diverse culture, entertainment industry, and technological leadership.